Sunday.

Dear Maria,

I meant to have written last night, but circumstances prevented. I was caught in a shower, close to Ch Ol & was obliged to put in, tho' I intended to stop first here. It was well I did for I found Jo Richardson had made an appointment for me at 12. so of course I staid where I was. I saw Gamb of course the first person.

She reported Mary as having had a poor day Sunday & also that morn-ing — I went directly up & saw M. G. & did not think she had gained any thing. but then to be sure she had just waked She was worried & very nervous & very irritable — a slight noise made her start & open her eyes in that frightened way, very weak people do.
She had sat up an hour had been troubled with nausea very much the day before. She was still very thankful to be rid of you, but it had'nt done her the good she expected.

She was worrying that she got on no faster, she could not read at all, it set her heart out, & when Sooun ey had to go to look up a cookstreet, she declared it was so dreadful to have other folks looking among your things. I thought her thinner. Gamp told me that every thing was going done, but Dr B had said "she isn't out of the wood yet". She fitt right of me rather annoyed her, but when she found I wasn't going to fasten upon her she eased off. Jo Richetson had made an appointment at 12, if I came in Town to be directed. He told some N. B. news but nothing in particular. He said he had spoken to Sumner about

Willey, who edits the NB Standard, I asked for some place as sec. of Legation for him. So perhaps Susan, tell Ma, will get as one of the Legation to the Court of St James— So told Sumner Willey had earned it of the party, he had done so much— I will call at 6. PM by & by & give you the last news—

Ame & I called at 6. PM & found Mary better & in good spirits. Saw Judge Shaws death & wonder if any body will dare to mention Med.

Yr post P.
